WATER RESOURCES MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY (WARMA)

PRESS STATEMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

14th FEBRUARY 2022

FRAUD ALERT TO THE PUBLIC

The Water Resources Management Authority (WARMA) has received reports of unscrupulous people scamming to be WARMA employees soliciting and attempting to defraud unsuspecting members of the public particularly drilling companies. We wish to distance ourselves from such criminal activities and wish to warn members of the public to be on the lookout for these fraud stars.

WARMA does not call its clients on phone to verify their permits or licenses. WARMA through the Catchment Manager will always call you to come to the office if need arises. Please do not give any of your license or permit details to anyone posing as a WARMA employee. No payment should be made to any WARMA employee or any other person but instead make deposit in the official WARMA account and get an official receipt from our offices. When in doubt or for any clarification always call the Catchment Manager or the undersigned.

WARMA is a statutory body governed by principal pillars of Transparency, Accountability, and Integrity. All financial transactions conducted with the Authority must be done from any of our offices and official receipts must be provided. Further, WARMA and its employees shall not ask for payment from anyone outside our office space, and without issuing a receipt for such a transaction.
